Dear Valued Agent:

The holiday season, beginning with Thanksgiving and ending with the Super Bowl, presents additional circumstances for potential loss. Nearly 29 million Americans will host a party between Thanksgiving and the Super Bowl. Even more importantly, more than 32 million of those party hosts do not have personal umbrella insurance, leaving them open to lawsuits and potential financial ruin.

If a party guest drinks, drives and causes an accident, the hosts can be held responsible for the ensuing injuries. The high dollar value of jury awards combined with skyrocketing health care costs means one lawsuit can easily exceed the liability limits provided by the average homeowner policy.

Our Personal Umbrella Product provides follow form host liquor liability coverage, giving your clients the protection they need when hosting holiday events.
