CORRECTION

After our FloodFacts newsletter was released on May 20, we realized we had a typographical error (typo) near the top of Page 1. The Regular Program basic insurance limits should have read:

- 1-4 Family Dwelling Building Coverage:
Basic limit increases from $50,000 to $60,000

Please correct your FloodFacts newsletter to read $60,000.

To assist you in finding the error, here is the relative position of the text needing correction on Page 1:

Our sincere apology for any confusion this may have caused.
